Manufacturer Membership Eligibility

Any firm or division thereof engaged in business as a principal/client is eligible to become a Manufacturer Member of the Association. A principal/client is defined as a manufacturer or supplier of goods and services which can be sold to outlets that can be served by Members.

Manufacturer Membership is available only to firms and not to the individuals affiliated with a firm. The primary contact from a Manufacturer Member shall be any of the highest ranking officers in the sales and marketing area. To satisfy the requirements of Manufacturer Membership, an Applicant shall agree to support the intent of the Code of Ethics by not engaging in activities inconsistent therewith and have the responsibility for showing that it complies with the definition of a principal/client.
